

THE NORTH CAROLINA HERPETOLOGICAL SOCIETY

Announces

Spring Conference and General Meeting and second-ever virtual meeting!

☆ ☆ Saturday, April 24, 2021 ☆ ☆

AGENDA

9:00 – 9:15 a.m.	Sign-in, welcome, and announcements
9:15 – 9:45 a.m.	Use of DNA Metabarcoding to Characterize Amphibian Diets from Non-Invasive Fecal Samples. Alex Funk, University of Tennessee, Knoxville
9:45 - 10:00 a.m.	Break and socialize (participants welcome to unmute and talk with the group)
10:00 - 10:30 a.m.	Effects of Halipegus occidualis Parasite Infection on Vocalizations and Dispersal of the Green Treefrog Hyla cinerea. Sarah Goodnight, East Carolina University
10:00 – 10:45 a.m.	Break and socialize (participants welcome to unmute and talk with the group)
10:45 – 11:15 a.m.	Tracking the Distant Chorus: Uncovering Speciation-in-action in Chorus Frogs (Pseudacris). Dr. Emily Moriarty Lemmon, Florida State University
11:15 – 11:30 p.m.	Break and socialize (participants welcome to unmute and talk with the group)
11:30 a.m. – 12:00 noon	Frog Mountains: Exploring Lost Worlds in Northern South America. Dr. D. Bruce Means, Coastal Plains Institute and Land Conservancy
12:00 noon – 1:00 p.m.	Business Session, closing comments, and discussion

Link: <https://nashcc-edu.zoom.us/j/95176431056>

